

BIZBASH

July/August 2004

SETTING THE STANDARD

Picture it: a classy venue decked out to the nines, your guests laughing and mingling, couples dancing to the full sound of a big band, and you with all the kudos! Wherever you throw your next bash, you'll want Craig Scott Entertainment behind the music. For almost 20 years this innovative entertainment office has been outfitting parties, weddings, and events with polished bands, fine orchestras, and hip DJs. Founded by Scott Homak and Nick Dellosa, both musicians, Craig Scott caters to all your musical whims with an ear-delicious roster of over 40 live bands ranging in style from classical to the music of China. With big bands at a new height of popularity, you can treat your guests to a lavish 15-piece ensemble fronted by elegant singers. Or perhaps you'll choose Stan Gilbert, a Sinatra baritone so classic you'll close your eyes and think Frank himself is crooning. Do you want the best Beatles over hand? They've got it. How about a reggae or steel drums for a truly tropical feel? Imagine trumpets heralding your guests, or a strolling violin soothing your dinner party. There's even a Wild West show for a truly original event. Rock, country, jazz, comedians, belly dancing—there's nothing else professionals can't deliver.

With offices in New York and New Jersey, Craig Scott Entertainment is ready to help you create the perfect mood for your event, no matter where it's held. As if that weren't enough, the people at Craig Scott pride themselves on building and maintaining relationships with all their clients. You'll have your own agent helping you with everything and a state-of-the-art website with high-quality sound clips to give you a taste of your options. Whatever the occasion, you'll get the entertainment you want with the personal attention you deserve. Craig Scott is the standard by which others are measured.
